From the Cheltenham Chamber of Citizens

I regret not knowing about the Cheltenham Chamber of Citizens. Check out their website at

<http://www.cheltenhamchamberofcitizens.com/>

I heard of them from Jennie Brantner, who sent me the following email. Please respond to her if you are interested in participating in helping to organize the proposed debates:

Dear Mr. Rudin,

It would seem an opportune time to provide a debate for the Candidates running for Commissioners of Wards #2 (Dem.-Art Haywood and Rep.-Denise Marshall), #4(Dem. Kathy Hampton and Rep.-Mary Beth Carroll), and #6 (Dem.- Morton Mickey J. Simon, Jr. and Rep.-Myron Goldman), as well as for the position of finance officer (Dem-Stephen G. Burns and Rep.-Frank Abreu).

If you have ever attended the event for the Cheltenham School Board of Directors sponsored by United Parents Group with the League of Women Voters (LWV), it would be modeled after that ... with a volunteer committee of local residents planning the forum with support from LWV. I have contacted Vivienne Spector who is the local President of the Cheltenham LWV chapter as well as Olga McHugh, an organizing member of Cheltenham Chamber of Citizens (CCC), about their potential involvement and they have both responded positively.

I was wondering if your Melrose Park Neighbors Association would also like to join in the development of the debate. Please, email me at this address or call me at (215) 884-4018 if you have an interest in sharing this opportunity with your members.
